

House Resolution No. 4534

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are delighted to honor an outstanding Missourian who has witnessed dramatic changes in America during his sojourn on this most precious earth; and

Whereas, Leo W. Linsenbardt, a cherished resident of Jefferson City, Missouri, will commemorate the resplendent occasion of his One Hundredth Birthday with a special celebration on December 5, 2004, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Lohman; and

Whereas, on December 8, 1904, in the Capital City, God brought a special gift to Louis and Amelia Kleindienst Linsenbardt with the birth of an adorable infant by the name of Leo, who would put a twinkle in their eyes and fill their hearts with love and joy; and

Whereas, while celebrating his birthday, Leo Linsenbardt will have the opportunity to reminisce about some of the significant events in his life such as attending Stringtown Grade School and St. Paul's Lutheran Church School, being married to Erna Hirschman Linsenbardt, and witnessing the arrival of their offspring; and

Whereas, God has blessed Leo Linsenbardt with the love and affection of a wonderful family whose members include one daughter and son-in-law, Marilyn Jean and James Fink; two granddaughters and their husbands, Kelly Jean and Scott Grunden and Leann Marie and Brian Hager; and five great-grandchildren, Garrett, Tyler, and Laney Hager, and Kara and Adam Grunden; and

Whereas, Leo Linsenbardt has compiled an impressive record of achievement that includes retiring from Missouri Pacific Railroad following forty years of successful endeavor, toiling as a school crossing guard for fourteen years, and being a member of the Brotherhood Maintenance of Way Union and the Fraternal Order of the Eagles; and

Whereas, Leo Linsenbardt has enjoyed many hobbies and pastimes over the past century including working in his and many other peoples yards throughout the Jefferson City area; and

Whereas, Leo Linsenbardt has derived a tremendous amount of spiritual fulfillment through his lifetime affiliation with St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Lohman, a place of worship where he has distinguished himself as the eldest member:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and special birthday greetings to Leo Linsenbardt at this significant milestone and in wishing him peace and contentment as he continues to enjoy his golden years; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Leo W. Linsenbardt, as a measure of our esteem for him.
